

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Celebrate Bonita Festival is coming this weekend to the City of Bonita Springs!

Bonita Springs, FL, March 15, 2019 –The City of Bonita Springs will be holding its annual Celebrate Bonita Festival in commemoration of the City’s incorporation. The event is free to the public. This special event will take place in historic Downtown Bonita at the Riverside Park this weekend on April 6th from 4-9 p.m. This year local artists Sarah Hadeka and the High Voltage Band will be performing! The Liles Hotel and Artist Cottages will open to the public, food and beverages will be sold, and, of course, lots of fun activities for the kids as well. Proceeds from refreshment sales will benefit the Bonita Springs Assistance Office. Pets and coolers are prohibited in the park. Come and take part in the amazing celebration of our great city, it will be a fun and memorable experience! We would like to thank and recognize the following sponsors for their involvement and commitment in the community: Buffalo Chips and Ranch Restaurant, Shangri-La Springs and Henderson and Franklin Law Office. Beautiful Riverside Park is located at the corner of Old 41 and Pennsylvania Avenue in Bonita Springs.
